Two new ways to scout Friday.

New this week in the Wolf Cup app: The Line sets live betting odds on who takes the week, and Group Scouting breaks down every foursome before you tee off. Frozen, graded, and 100% for fun — plus a stack of upgrades all season long.

The Line

Real American odds on every member to win the week — favorites to longshots

Group Scouting

Every foursome broken down — form, hot/cold holes, rivalries, lucky charms

Tap for the why

Question your number? Tap it — the app shows the Stableford + money behind the price

Graded every week

Chalk, Upset, or Busted — the line answers for itself, publicly, every Friday

NEW THIS WEEK

The app now sets the line

Open the Scouting tab and it leads with The Line — a full sportsbook board pricing every member's odds to win the week.

Odds to win the week

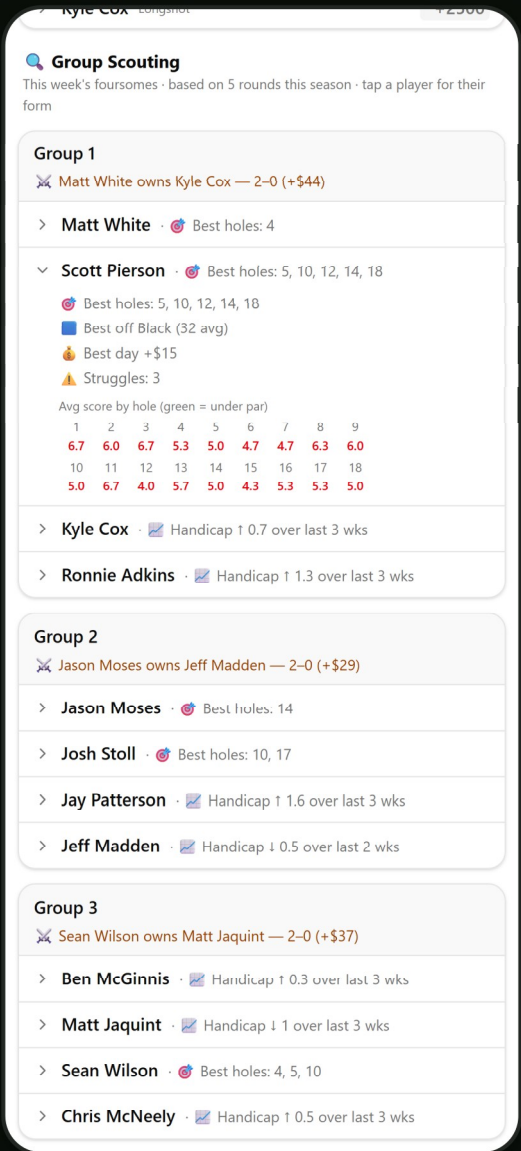

Every member gets a real American price to post the most Harvey points that Friday — favorites in the black, live dogs in the middle, longshots out to +2500. Tap any name to drill in: your true win %, your confidence, and the reasoning behind the number.

- ✓ Favorites → longshots — a board with real texture
- ✓ Tap for the why — your Stableford + money rank, in plain English
- ✓ Frozen before tee time — it can never peek at the result
- ✓ Graded weekly — ☒ Chalk, Upset, or Busted at the top of the board
- ✓ Scrub the week selector to relive any past Friday's line

NEW THIS WEEK

Know the foursome before you tee off

Below the line, Group Scouting breaks down this week's foursomes — the pre-round intel that used to live only in your head.

Scouting, by the group

Tap any player in your foursome to see exactly how they're playing — handicap trend, the holes they own, the holes they dread, and their average score on every hole, front nine and back.

- ✓ 📈 Handicap trend — who's heating up, who's cooling off
- ✓ 🎯 Best & worst holes, plus their go-to birdie hole
- ✓ 📊 Hole-by-hole scoring averages (green = under par)
- ✓ ✂️ Rivalries — who owns who in the money
- ✓ 🍀 Lucky charms — the partnerships that just work

ALSO NEW THIS SEASON

A season of upgrades

The app keeps getting sharper between Fridays. Plenty has landed since launch that we never made noise about:

Standings, redesigned — leader hero, the cut line, and a "pin me" to find yourself fast.

Smoother start — pick your group before the draw, with "wrong group?" and auto-resume escape hatches.

Sort the live board — by Harvey points, Stableford, or money.

Season Highlights reel — a rotating award widget: Birdies, Par 3 Champ, Sandman, Putting Master...

Hole-by-hole on the card — every player's per-hole scoring averages, one tap away.

Skins, listed — every skin winner shown, not just one.

Fix the batting order — the scorer can correct a mis-entered draw mid-round, safely.

Live side-game leader — see who's winning the side game while the round is still going.

Closest-to-pin, per par 3 — captured in-play on CTP weeks, not reconstructed later.

Sharper stats — chemistry, rivalries (meet your Nemesis), and batting, all "higher = better."

Pairing transparency — public pairing history and who you've teamed with all season.

Fairer ball draw — now a true random shuffle.

Read it — it's funny

The Line is 100% for entertainment. No money changes hands, no accounts, no wallet — just the bragging rights of being the week's chalk (or the longshot who ruined everyone's card).

What the line can — and can't — price

- | | |
|--|--|
| ✓ Current form — beating your index | ✓ The money half — who owns wolf |
| ✗ Sandbagging — gaming your index | ✗ Dumping a round — tanking on purpose |
| ✗ Lightning — catching fire late | ✓ Handicaps equalize — so the edge stays honest |

That last column is exactly why we still play it on grass instead of a spreadsheet.

The board's open.

Go see where you sit, then scout your group. Favorite or longshot, your number's already waiting.
